DIRECTOR'S NOTE

This is a story about dreams. It is a story about men struggling to make ends meet against the face of impossible economic circumstances. And it is a story about unbreakable friendship, forged from the steel of the unending road.

CURLEY'S WIFE: I want to see somebody. Just see 'em an' talk to 'em. There ain't no women. I can't walk to town. And Curley don't take me to no dances now. I tell you I jus' want to talk to somebody.
-Act II, Sc. 1

As rendered by Steinbeck, the characters on this stage wander lost in a sea of loneliness, but not despair. These are people full of hope. What is important to note is that George and Lennie's dream of living on their own off the fat of the land is not unique, it is the driving motivation that gets each and every one of these characters out of bed in the morning. Whether it's a pack of mules, a soft furry rabbit, or just someone to talk to, this is a story about the overwhelming needs that drive us forward.

SLIM: Ain't many guys travel around together. I don't know why. Maybe everybody in the whole damn world is scared of each other.
-Act I, Sc. 2

CROOKS: A guy needs somebody... to be near him. A guy goes nuts if he ain't got nobody. Don't make no difference who it is as long as he's with you.
- Act II, Sc. 2

Imagine looking out over an open river, the wind in your hair, and in the distance you can just make out everything you've always wanted. That is how badly each of these characters wants that little piece of land to call their own. The story lives and breathes in deep perspectives and wide-open spaces. Even in the trapped interior of a bunkhouse or barn, you can still feel the open vistas of California through the walls. It's enough to give you hope.

GEORGE: Guys like us got no families. They got a little stake and then they blow it in. They ain't got nobody in the world that gives a boot in hell about 'em! But not us... Because I got you and...

LENNIE: And I got you. We got each other, that's what, that gives a boot in hell about us.
-Act III, Sc. 2

We have an incredible team here at TLT. It has been a pleasure to work together with Chris, Blake, Michele, Jeffrey, and Nena along with the cast and crew on this project. Please enjoy Of Mice and Men.

ROBIN HOOD AND MAID MARIAN TAKE TO THE TLT STAGE!

Directed by Nena Curley

Robin Hood, the outlaw of Sherwood Forest, leads a merry life with his followers. Anyone who is hungry or who has no place to live is welcome in the greenwood. The citizens of the forest oppose wicked Prince John. He's taken the place of King Richard the Lion-Hearted, who has gone to the Holy Land on a crusade. One day a caravan cuts through the wood. In the convoy is Robin's childhood sweetheart, Maid Marian, ward of King Richard. Alas, the evil Lady Merle of Cornwall plans to force Marian to marry the Prince in an effort to make John more acceptable to the people of England. To arms! It's up to Robin to stop the marriage, defeat a nasty sheriff and secure Nottingham for the king's return.

FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Tacoma Little Theatre Board of Directors is delighted to have you in our audience, and we hope that you are enriched by this live theatre experience. Our Board has several goals for the upcoming year; please let us know if you want to be a part of achieving them!

- Provide greater access, on stage and off, to our community. While we have been known to cast broadly, we've taken it a step further, and our casting notices specify that auditions are open to all racial and ethnic backgrounds unless otherwise specified. We encourage auditions from people of all backgrounds.
- Provide clearer opportunities for volunteerism. We've always relied on our wonderful volunteers for ushering, and ticket taking, and event planning along with other work. We are now strengthening our Board committees and looking for people who are interested in volunteering with us on event planning, fundraising, facilities, and governance. If you have any interest in serving with any of those committees, please let Chris Surface (chris@tacomalittletheatre.com) know.
- Prepare for our upcoming 100th anniversary and begin planning for continued upgrades to our facility.

Tacoma Little Theatre is fortunate to have strong leadership in Chris Surface, and we look forward to continued success with his leadership and our connection to you and the rest of our community.

Enjoy the show!

Thanks for coming, please like all of the theatres on Facebook and visit them throughout the year.

Roger Iverson (Candy)

Roger's first TLT show was Hay Fever where he played a strapping young buck. That was 1983. Tonight he's typecast as a dried up old has-been. It has been a dream come true to be a part of this great production. Thanks to the cast and crew for their support and friendship.

Derek studied theatre at Lower Columbia College, Southern Oregon, and Greece, earning a degree in Communications and Theatre Arts. Roles: Prince/Wolf (Into the Woods), Father (Eurydice), Conquistador (Addams Family), and Benedick (Much Ado About Nothing). Thanks to Nic, the cast, as well as his friends, and family for their support through this process.

This is Margret's first production with TLT. A recent attendee of Central Washington University, she currently teaches biology and horticulture at Rogers High School. She would like to thank her parents, friends, and students for their support. It has been an honor to be a part of this show; she has enjoyed learning from the expertise of her fellow cast members and director.

Mason is ecstatic to be back on TLT's stage. His last appearances here were as another George in The Great Gatsby, and Hal (Proof). Other roles include Jimmy (The Rainmaker), Kendrick (A Few Good Men) and Septimus (Arcadia) at Lakewood Playhouse.
